Motor

What we do

The UK continues to develop a Claims Culture, activities ranging from exaggeration to outright fraud. Examples can be seen in connection with motor claims, staged accidents, phantom passengers, and deliberate crashes, the only deterrent is detailed investigations carried out by experienced investigators.

Services

Core Claims Management can offer comprehensive services for the investigation and verification of all aspects of claims under all types of motor insurance policies.

This includes:-

- Accident Investigation
- Theft
- Staged accidents
- Third party property damage

All our investigators are experienced and fully briefed in:-

- Preparing Woolf compliant statements for drivers and witnesses
- Detailed locus inspection
- In depth indemnity investigation
- Interviews of police officers
- Attendance and notes of evidence at Inquest and other courts
- IFIG (Insurance Fraud Investigation Group)

Reporting

We can tailor our services to suit the needs of our client and transmit our reports via e-mail if required. All reports are quality controlled by senior personnel and can be produced in either our own format or that required by our clients. We are also registered under The Data Protection Act.

Processing

Our IT system is used to monitor each step of the process and to maintain a clear audit trail.

We are able to provide detailed statistics to clients when required, to demonstrate compliance with their service standards.

What we charge

Our fees are tailored to each client. For further information please contact David Miles or Alan Hines.
